Subject: Tonights Council meeting

Hi Ed,

Not sure if you're aware but thought I'd check in quickly. Thanks again for your understanding last week, our family is slowly working its way through this difficult situation.

I was looking at tonight's council agenda and didn't really see anything specific to my department, however, given everything that's been going on, I thought from an optics perspective it might be best that I'm there. Let me know if you feel otherwise.

Also, I just had a brief conversation with Rob Armstrong about the information they are trying to prepare in response to Friday's meeting. Nothing new or significant was discussed, but let me know if you want a quick update.

Thanks
marta
