$5 + million for the Y new pool ... $5+ million to move & rebuild the ball diamonds + demo the outdoor rink... $2+ million to reno / join the buildings for a single footprint ....

That's $12+ million without an icecube. But central park is a must!.... hmmm...

We should consider the obvious....att,

Good Morning Marta

Marta last night after the meeting at the library when I met with you Penny and Brian I left with the impression that Brian believed that the Town was paying the total cost of the YMCA Pool expansion.

I must say that at no time did I believe that Town were committing anything more than the original pledge of $1.5 million towards the YMCA portion of the project.

I was very surprised with Brains comments and wonder if you would clarify what you believe was promised to the YMCA.
